Laura Recovery Center Helping with Search for Brittane Drexel in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina

The Laura Recovery Center has been contacted by the mom of missing teenager Brittane Drexel. Brittane, a high school student from Rochester, New York, was in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina for spring break when she disappeared. She was last seen around 8PM on April 25th as she left the Bar Harbor Hotel. Brittane is a Caucasian female, 5 feet tall, 103 pounds, with blue eyes and shoulder-length straight brown hair.

On Sunday two members of the Laura Recovery Center, Dawn Davis and Janice Liggett, flew to Myrtle Beach to help in the search for Brittane.

The LRC is working with her family, local law enforcement, the CUE Center of North Carolina, 3 View Search Services, and other non-profit organizations. Our efforts to date include media events and flyer distribution. Community volunteers and search and rescue teams are being organized to search in areas identified by local police.

Tips to the Myrtle Beach police can be called in to a special tip line, 843-918-1963. Besides general information, the police are interested in locating a pink cell phone that may be related to this case.

Please take the time to download and distribute Brittane's flyer, available at www.LRCF.org.

The Laura Recovery Center is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization, that was founded in Laura Smither's memory. The Center focuses on Education, Search, and Prevention in the area of missing children, has offered free abduction prevention programs to over 170,000 children throughout the greater Houston area, worked with over 1,400 families with missing loved ones, and has organized over 85 community searches for abducted children nationwide. The Center trains law enforcement at the Houston Police Department training academy and other agencies in Texas, and distributes educational materials and child ID kits.
